METHODISM IN NEW JERSEY: A BRIEF BIBLIOGRAPHY

by Kenneth E. Rowe, Drew University

This bibliography attempts to identify the principal printed sources available for the study of Methodism in New Jersey from the colonial period to the present. The compiler has in mind students, historians, pastors and local church Committees on Records and History, who, according to the 1976 BOOK OF DISCIPLINE of the UMC, "shall be responsible for preparing, where it does not exist, a history of the local church or churches from the time of organization." (Par. 261.6)

No attempt is made to list published histories of Methodism in towns and cities across the state. Rather the aim is to provide resources for setting each local church's history in the wider context of the several annual conferences and the state as a whole.

Copies of each item are available in the Drew University Library in Madison.

LOCAL CHURCH HISTORY CONTEST - Awards to be presented during 1978 Conference.

Six local churches--Bayonne, Frankford Plains, Morristown, Springfield, Union and Walnut Valley--have submitted histories of their churches published during the calendar year 1977 for our fifth annual LOCAL CHURCH HISTORY RECOGNITION CONTEST. Two awards will be presented during the 1978 meeting of the conference in June.

COMMISSION TO PUBLISH HISTORICAL BOOKLET

The stories of two celebrated ministers in the former Newark Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church have been compiled by Dr. Henry Lyle Lambdin, Emeritus Professor of Homiletics at Drew University. Copies of the 82 page booklet entitled THE CIVIL WAR DIARIES OF JAMES B. FAULKS AND THE PERSONAL DIARIES OF JOHN S. COIT, will be distributed in June when conference gathers at Drew University. This is the first in what we hope will be a continuing series of historical publications of the Commission.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY PLANS ANNUAL DINNER MEETING - Tuesday, May 16, 1978 at Madison

The Annual dinner meeting of the Conference Historical Society will be held Tuesday, May 16, 1978 in the United Methodist Church in Madison, N.J. Following dinner at 7:00 P.M., Dr. Henry Lambdin will speak on the theme "A Unique Chapter from Old Halsey Street." Reservations at $5.25 per person may be made, until May 10, through: The Rev. Paul E. Spiecker
425 Lafayette Avenue
Hawthorne, N.J. 07506

(Please make check payable to Paul E. Spiecker, chairman)

LOCAL CHURCH RECORDS PROJECT

In order to encourage the gathering and preservation of local church records the Conference Commission is launching a microfilming project for local churches. Expenses would be shared equally between the local church and the Conference Commission. Microfilming would be done at cost by Drew University Library.

Each local church is encouraged to form a Records and History Committee and to begin to gather together from attics and basements, closets and trunks, all available official records (membership, baptisms, marriages, burials, etc.) along with minutes of the most important boards and committees (Administrative Boards, Trustees, United Methodist Women, United Methodist Men, Youth Fellowships and their predecessor groups).

A master microfilm file would be maintained in the Conference Archives at Drew. Physical copies may be returned to the local church or be placed on deposit with the Conference Archives as desired. Contact President Spiecker for details.

TRAVELING EXHIBIT ON BISHOP FRANCIS ASBURY

A small exhibit of Asbury memorabilia from the collection of Drew University is available on request for use at special celebrations in local churches. The exhibit includes several mounted prints and photographs, a set of ordination certificates signed by our first Bishop, along with a pair of spectacles he wore. When used with historical items from a local congregation, this makes an attractive addition to an anniversary or other historical observation. Contact Dr. Kenneth E. Rowe, Drew University Library, Madison, N. J. 07940, 377-3000, Ext. 470.

CELEBRATING THE HERITAGE:

BAYONNE & its Bees!

Wesley Church, the second oldest religious society in Bayonne, recently celebrated their heritage on the occasion of its 147th anniversary with a special worship service at which Bishop C. Dale White was the guest preacher. In the 1830's, when Bayonne was a Dutch farming area known as "Bergen Neck", a group of Methodists newly arrived from England built a small meeting house. Bees outnumbered parishioners at first, having built a nest in under the church's eaves. "From the bees," explained the Rev. Wayne Plumstead, pastor, "came the name by which the church was first known: 'The Little Beehive.'" Money from the sale of honey produced by the Methodist bees helped keep the doors of the struggling church open!

FAIRFIELD

Fairfield United Methodist Church, the former Clinton M.E. Church, observed its 125th Anniversary on 4 Dec., 1977. The Reverend Burke White was the preacher for the occasion. Burke was pastor of the Clinton Church and Pine Brook Circuit in 1927-29. He celebrated 50 years in the ministry on Palm Sunday, 1977. The current record book of the church, started 24 Jan 1965, has an historical note saying that the first mention of the Clinton Methodist Church is found in an old quarterly conference record book for 1852-187. In 1952, the church sold memorial plates giving the dates 1852-1952 for the church. Lynn G. Lockwood, A Puritan Heritage (1955) says the Methodist Church in Clinton was formed in 1822, taking several members from the Caldwell Presbyterian Church.

--Henry O. Thompson.

HARMONY HILL (Stillwater)

A recent day of celebration found the members and friends of Harmony Hill Church rejoicing for a number of reasons. The congregation was led by Bishop White in observing the 175th anniversary of the church. During the worship service members of long standing were honored, with the record holder being Mrs. Olive Cummins, who joined the church in 1903. Members also celebrated the church's election to the National Register of Historic Places. The church edifice, built of stone, was completed in 1832. Both the parsonage, built in 1841, and the cemetery are included in the historic designation.

UNION

During October the Union church celebrated its 50th anniversary. On October 9 a Service of Thanksgiving and Dedication was held with Bishop White preaching. A dinner-dance was held and a Homecoming Service on October 16 with Pastor Roberts preaching, assisted by the Rev. Alden Smith, pastor from 1941-1946. Greetings were read from Bishop John Wesley Lord who served as pastor from 1931-1934. A commemorative booklet was distributed on the occasion.
